West Coast Ports: What Comes Next?

December 9, 2015
Speakers

Debbie McMillan, Derco (Moderator)

Peter Friedmann, AgTC
Debbie McMillan, Derco
West Coast Ports: What Comes Next?

Almond Board of California
Moving Almonds Around the World Isn’t So Easy…

• Last year’s port slowdown caused significant problems for shippers
• Legislation and creative solutions were essential….
• How do we prepare for the next negotiation?
Serves as the Executive Director of the Agriculture Transportation Coalition. He plays a key role in developing U.S. and international transportation policy. In 1987, he helped form the AgTC when a number of agricultural exporters sought assistance in dealing with ocean transportation challenges.
Peter Friedmann,
AgTC
Peter Friedmann
Executive Director
ExecutiveDirector@AgTrans.org
www.AgTrans.org
"The principal voice of U.S. agriculture exporters in transportation policy”

– Journal of Commerce

“The leaders on transportation issues … the Agriculture Transportation Coalition, which includes agriculture exporters and importers and freight forwarders as well as agriculture trade associations and state departments of agriculture”

– National Journal
AgTC 28th Annual Meeting
June 15-17, 2016
Long Beach, CA

www.AgTrans.org